

Kevin G. Harbour, Sr. - Professional Biography

Strengthening the Voice of Business

Defining the Voice of Business

Kevin Harbour, a long time Los Angeles resident and California Native, is a seasoned business professional whose background includes working over 30 years in the IT, telecom and emerging technology industries including Fortune 100, 500 and 1000 corporations, and Public Policy non-profit corporations.

In March of 2017, Kevin joined the LA County Business Federation (BizFed) as the Director of Business Development and was promoted a year later to Vice President of Business Development where he grew the business and achieved many quarterly revenue and qualitative goals. A year later he was promoted as the President of BizFed Institute, where he strives to grow the organization and brand by leading BFI's efforts to have meaningful discussions with public and private sector leadership regarding business, environmental, health and social issues that affect us all, the latest of which is closing the Digital Divide.

Kevin has previous experience as a CA licensed real estate agent and investor. As President of BizFed Institute, he led the effort to deliver (3) Housing Forums in 2020 in partnership with the Milken Institute, along with a Housing Forum scheduled to take place on September 17th of 2021.

Kevin graduated from Loyola High School, and then UCLA. He was also the President of the UCLA Black Alumni Assoc. and currently sits on the Advisory Council of Move LA and the LA County CVA Advisory Council.